

Featured Project: Esplanade, St. Helier, Jersey

Stone Type: Granite

The work here involved external cladding in a variety of granites.

Stirling Stone worked on several addresses in this high specification office development, which now accommodates some leading financial institutions.

