

Featured Project: Kingsgate Shopping Centre, Huddersfield

Stone Type: Sandstone

This is a major new shopping development in the centre of Huddersfield. All of the external façades of this project were clad in a mixture of 100mm thick local buff sandstone and polished cast stone blockwork.

Certain façades on the rear of the development forming individual shop units were built to a more traditional design, in keeping with the local architecture.

