

Featured Project: 200 Broomielaw, Glasgow

Stone Type: Sandstone, Granite, Limestone, Slate

This striking office development on the north side of the river Clyde features a sandstone tower, which curves from the front of the building to form a full height seven-storey entrance atrium.

Both gable ends are part-clad in red granite. Stirling Stone also carried out internal works including slate and limestone flooring and sandstone walling.

