

Featured Project: Morrison's Supermarket, Falkirk

Stone Type: Sandstone

Natural buff sandstone was chosen by the client and architect for this town centre supermarket in order to blend well with the local architecture.

The stone supplied was 100mm thick ashlar to the main walling areas, and feature columns and pilasters to the entrance atrium on the corner.

The stone was also carried through to the inside of the supermarket's entrance area.

