

Featured Project: Standard Life Headquarters, Edinburgh

Stone Type: Limestone

Standard Life's headquarters on Lothian Road dominates this financial district. Stirling Stone used a variety of limestones for the project, which included internal cladding, flooring, columns and planters.

The materials chosen were the same as those used under the famous glass pyramid at the Louvre Museum in Paris, which was visited as part of the stone selection process.

